

OP STAFF ASSEMBLY PRESENTS

UC UNDERGRADUATE APPLICATION SERIES

Understanding the Admissions and Financial Aid Application Process: Applying for Financial Aid

If you have a child heading off to college this year and are thinking about the cost -this is the workshop for you! This workshop will provide an overview of the financial aid application process and answers all of your questions.

Facilitator: Jamal Collins, Financial Aid Outreach & Communication Liaison

Join in remotely via Zoom
1 669 900 6833 US Toll (San Jose)
Meeting ID: 744 708 5448
<https://UCOP.zoom.us/j/7447085448>

Questions about the event? Please contact: Nicola Gruen (nicola.gruen@ucop.edu)

Applying for Financial Aid

Tuesday, January 12, 2021
12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m. PST

[https://UCOP.zoom.us/
j/7447085448](https://UCOP.zoom.us/j/7447085448)

About the Facilitator:

Jamal Collins is the Financial Aid Outreach and Communication Liaison in the Student Financial Support Unit at the Office of the President. He has spent over 15 years working at many different types of educational institutions as a financial aid administrator. Prior to joining OP, Jamal was the Associate Director of Financial Aid at UC Berkeley Law School, where he managed the office operations and policies for administering financial aid

About the Series:

As OP staff navigate the UC application and financial aid process with their children, family members and communities at large, the OP Staff Assembly has organized a series of workshops facilitated by OP experts. The goal of this series is to help OP staff get the answers to all the important questions and successfully navigate the UC application and financial aid process