PRESIDENT'S ADVISORY COMMITTEE
ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Aimy Steele is a former teacher and elementary school principal in Concord, North Carolina. She is passionate about public education and working with children.

Although a student from humble beginnings, Aimy benefited from incredible opportunities at an early age. She knows firsthand how exposure to enriching educational experiences changes lives. Moving to Japan as a young child in a military family catapulted Aimy's educational journey.

Aimy ran for election to the North Carolina House of Representatives (District 82) in 2020, conducting most of her campaign virtually due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Please join us to learn more about this unique experience, along with Aimy's plans to inform public policy and increase North Carolina voter turnout in the future.

PACSW established the Women We Admire speaker series in 2009 to bring education leaders to UCOP to share insights about their careers, workplace challenges, and work-life balance. Please see <http://ucop.edu/pacsw/events-programs/women-we-admire.html> for more details.
