UC UNDERGRADUATE APPLICATION SERIES

Understanding the Admissions and Financial Aid Application Process: Admissions Selection Process

Each year, thousands of students apply to UC undergraduate programs so it is extremely helpful to know what the admission selection is like. This workshop is meant to provide insight on the admission selection of freshmen and transfer students and answer any questions you may have about the process.

Facilitators: Laura Macchia Amescua, Manager of Policy and Admissions Evaluation and Angelica Moore, Associate Director, Policy and Communications for Undergraduate Admissions

About the Facilitators:

Laura Macchia Amescua is the Manager of Admissions Policy and Evaluation for Undergraduate Admissions at UCOP. She spent over 21 years at UCLA working with freshman, transfer, and international students before joining UCOP.

About the Series:

As OP staff navigate the UC application and financial aid process with their children, family members and communities at large, the OP Staff Assembly has organized a series of workshops facilitated by OP experts. The goal of this series is to help OP staff get the answers to all the important questions and successfully navigate the UC application and financial aid process.
