Bring a beverage or snack and join PACSW for an Equity Chat, a convening for light reading and discussions on Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) topics.

This quarter's chat focuses on UCLA's departure from the Pac-12. We open the floor for thoughts and opinions around this move given its negative impacts on student-athletes, loss of media rights for remaining schools, and decision-making by individual campuses. Please read the article prior to the session and be prepared to share your thoughts.

To suggest reading materials for future chats or for questions, please email fatima.azam@ucop.edu.
