

NRS Day 2024

Join the UC Natural Reserve System and UCOP leadership to celebrate NRS Day. Discover our 41 reserves and learn how these natural landscapes are helping to conserve California's diverse plants and animals. Students and researchers will share how they use reserves to advance learning, scientific research, and environmental stewardship. Indulge in an array of tasty treats, and get the chance to snag NRS swag as you browse our tables and interactive displays.
